

Links Policy

The main provisions of the publication of links to our website. If you plan to refer to our web resource on your website, please read these guidelines: We ask you to inform us if you wish to post a link referring to our website using support@skyway.capital to inform us about your company's name and its web address. Please do not provide a link referring to us, if your website contains any material that will be regarded as offensive or illegal according to international law. We ask you not to publish any claims or statements that can harm the reputation of the Company or imply, without permission, any connection with our business. With the exception of a written permission from the Company, the material on the web site must be displayed only in full-screen format without frame and content of advertising or other information. Please remember that the information and images on the websites of the Company are subject to copyright. Please do not distribute photos or articles from our website without our prior permission.

The use of the material from SkyWay Group companies' websites in the Internet is permitted only with mandatory placement of references to the publication of the source:

http://skyway.capital/files/link_policy-en.pdf

© <http://skyway.capital/>